"Every day a quarter of a million people attend Toastmasters meetings, seeking to become more confident speakers and leaders. These videos give anyone, not only members, access to Toastmasters time-tested tips they can use immediately," says Toastmasters International President Michael Notaro.

The video on "Five Basic Public Speaking Tips" covers how to master a topic and present it well. In the "Job Interviews" video, viewers learn how to interview with confidence through focused listening, articulate responses and effective body language.

Each five-to seven-minute video offers Toastmasters and non-Toastmasters resources to help them navigate speaking-related situations that arise every day. In the coming months, Toastmasters International will release eight additional videos that address common communication challenges such as:

- How to Offer a Toast
- When Things Go Wrong
- Finding Speech Topics
- Knowing Your Audience
- Using Humor in Speeches
- Gestures and Body Language
- Speaking Mistakes to Avoid
- How to Offer Feedback

The videos are available on the Toastmasters website, social media channels and YouTube. They are a great resource that can be easily accessed anytime or anywhere. To put these time-tested tips into practice and to find a local Toastmasters meeting, visit www.toastmasters.org.
